THE RAILWAY INN'S GARAGE

Gone

In 1925 the owner and occupier of this garage was Frederick H. M. Moore . He had paid a rate of £2 for it, but in January 17th, 1917 this was reduced to £1.15s.

Timber played a part in decorating the front. There are shop windows. The right hand photograph was taken when the building alongside the tall Railway Inn formerly Dart House had become part of the Inn.

In the detail from our earliest view of it from an old postcard, below left, the front is plainer. It appears to have had a chimney, and its windows in a square bay. There was an angled sign board above and no apparent entrance from the street. It was detached from the row of cottages of the Railway Terrace.
